Historical reference: The United Nations Organization (UNO) is an international organization whose aims are: facilitating cooperation in international law, international security, economic development, social progress, human rights and achievement of world peace. UNO was founded in 1945 after World War II to replace the League of Nations, to stop wars between countries and to provide a platform for dialogue. There are currently 192 member states, including nearly every sovereign state in the world.

On October 24, 1945 the Charter of the United Nations came into force and from the year 1948 this day is celebrated as the Day of the United Nations Organization.
