Elements of protection

9 October is World Post Day. It is one of the international days celebrated by the United Nations on the date when the Universal Postal Union was established in 1874. World Post Day was officially declared by the Congress of the UPU held in Tokyo in 1969. Since then World Post Day is celebrated in many countries around the world.

This year on 9 October the UPU celebrates its 140th foundation anniversary. The Republic of Belarus is the UPU member state from 1947.

The souvenir sheet was printed with the emblem of the Universal Postal Union and the logo of World Post Day.
